Coach Riley Dunn

Dedicatee

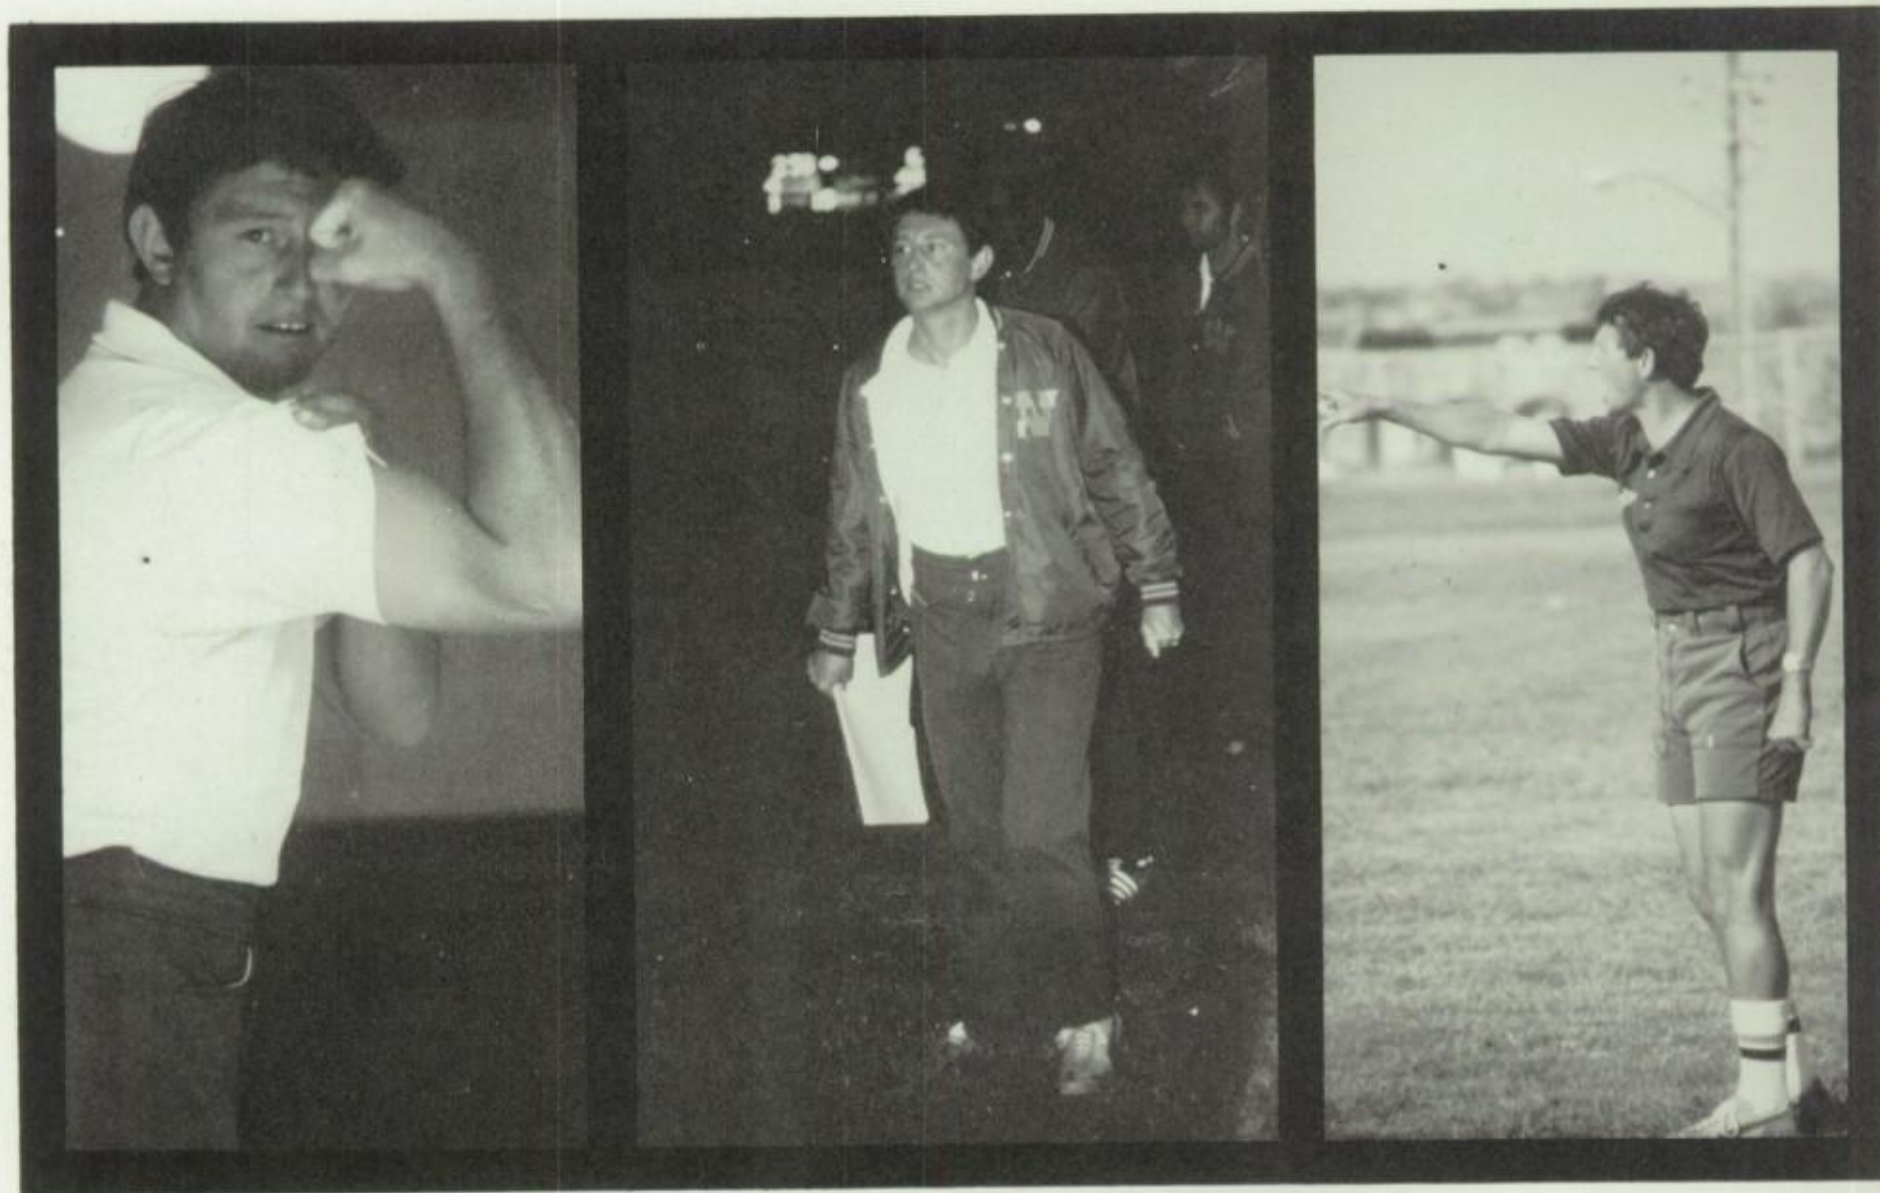

In dedication, the CATAMOUNT staff presents the 74-75 yearbook to Coach Riley Dunn. The staff feels that his special interest, and the devotion he has contributed to the students and faculty of Western Hills represents him well.

Mr. Dunn has served on the coaching staff and faculty for the past five years. Although small in stature, he is looked up to by all who know him. Coach Dunn's several business and typing classes are made more interesting through his various methods and expressions in teaching. With Mr. Dunn as head coach, the Cougar Track Team has competed in many State meets and won several plaques and trophies for their efforts.

Although arriving early and staying late gives Coach Dunn little time for outside activities, he still enjoys sponsoring the Boston Street Track Club, and the summer weight program at Western Hills.

Coach Dunn has a warm sense of humor and a friendly attitude towards all. His strong Christian beliefs and appreciation of life are also reflected in his personality. Coach Dunn remains an integral part of the student body and faculty of Western Hills.

Administration Promotes Communication

Cooperation and concern were the key to the responsibilities of the Fort Worth School Board. Although he resigned in March, Superintendent Julius Truelson kept communication lines open between administrators and teachers. Western Hills depended upon the leadership of principal Mr. P. B. Stovall and vice-principals Mr. Carl Robinson, Mr. Bob Lee, and Mrs. Frances Alles.

Stovall Retires After 36 Years

For the past five years Mr. P. B. Stovall has maintained an open line of communication between students and faculty. In the year of 1973-74 he was named top state administrator by the Texas Classroom Teachers Association.

Mr. Stovall has always expressed a need to upgrade the understanding of the student through a stronger student council. He has had very successful years, and we at Western Hills are very appreciative of him for all the fine work he has done and for all the improvements and advantages he has brought to our school with his devotion and untiring efforts.

INVOLVEMENT

School Commences With Registration

August 29 and 30 marked the first official days of school with the first of three registrations for the 74-75 school year. A wide range of subjects were offered, and many new teachers formed wild first impressions of students frantically attempting to register for classes they needed.

Students Join For Howdy Week

A week of reuniting returning students and welcoming new ones was climaxed September 6 by the seventh annual Howdy Dance, sponsored by the Student Council. Western Day and a pep rally also offered a chance for the students to feel unified again during Howdy Week.

Freshmen, Seniors Get Involved

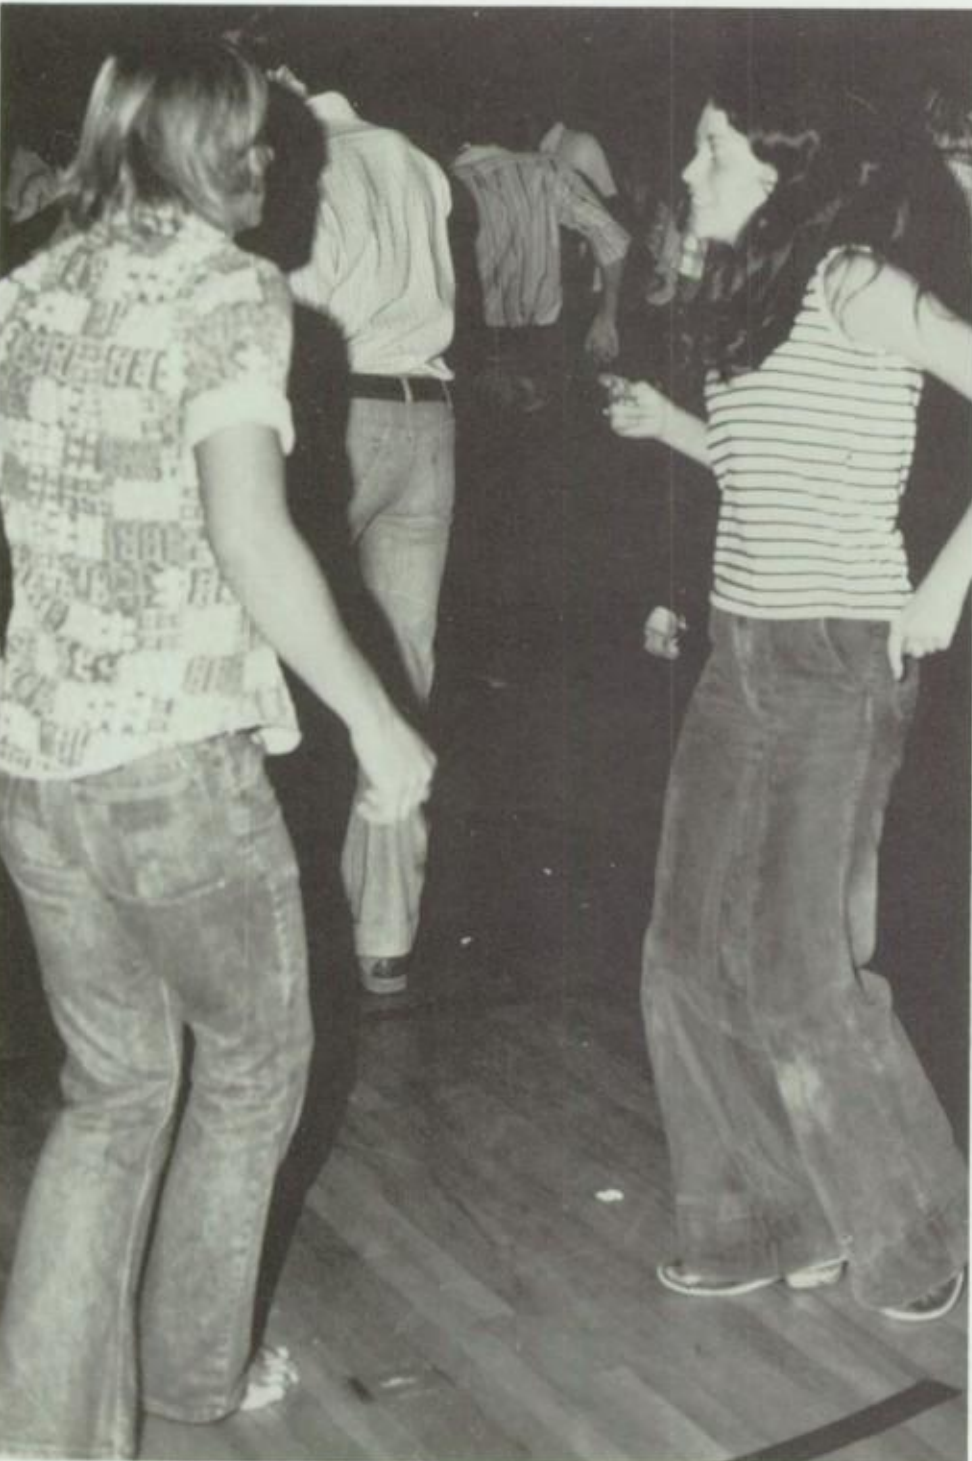

On the morning after the Howdy Dance, many freshman girls received an official welcome from the senior girls at a kidnap breakfast. This helped the freshmen feel more at ease, and as the first semester progressed, involvement in the school by the newcomers was visible at pep rallies and elections, as well as in the classroom.

Right: Janet Ashburn, Larry Cobb and Laurie Lewis work diligently in English class. Below: Freshman girls receive their initiation on the school parking lot.

A busy fall semester was experienced by the Class of '75. On September 24, the first annual Rent-a-Date was held to raise money for the Senior girls' "Barefoot Bash," October 5. Class spirit was kept high by the purchase of jerseys to be worn on game days, and various Senior projects.

Student Awareness Increases During Fall

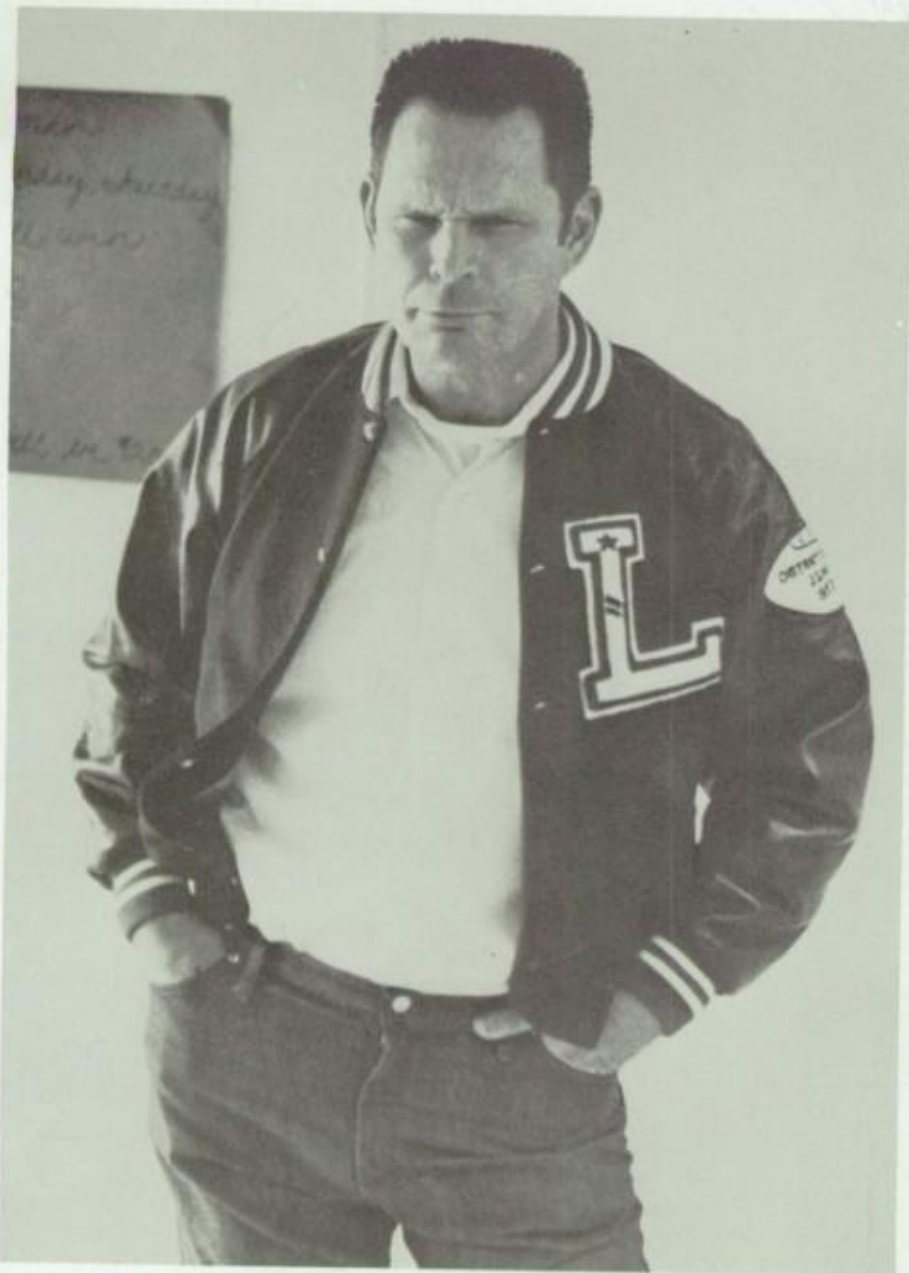

Many activities this fall provided chances for student involvement at Western Hills. All classes participated in the poster parties held in the afternoons preceding the football games. Freshman cheerleader tryouts and elections were held September 12. The stage band from Sheppard Air Force Base performed at Western Hills on October 17, offering a variety of music, from blues to rock. Halloween day the student body participated by dressing up in many original costumes.

50's Spirit Returns

November 8 marked the day of a nostalgic craze at Western Hills. Students dressed in the spirit of the 50's, climaxing the day at a pep rally "50's style" for the game against Northside that night.

Ice Skating Gains Popularity

Ice skating at Will Rogers' Coliseum brought record attendance on the three evenings sponsored by the Student Council. Monday night skating on October 14, January 6 and March 3 often resulted in a sore body on Tuesday morning, but the enjoyment of school togetherness made the pain bearable.

Students Take to the Sky

Parachuting has become an added interest of the students of Western Hills. Classes were conducted by jump-masters John Hamilton, Butch Harrison and Hal Navy on January 7, 8 and 9. Ground school provided the students with time to learn emergency and landing procedures. They were also taught how to exit the plane, fall, and control the parachute canopy during their descent. The first jump of the year was made successfully on January 11.

Varsity Football Filled with New Faces

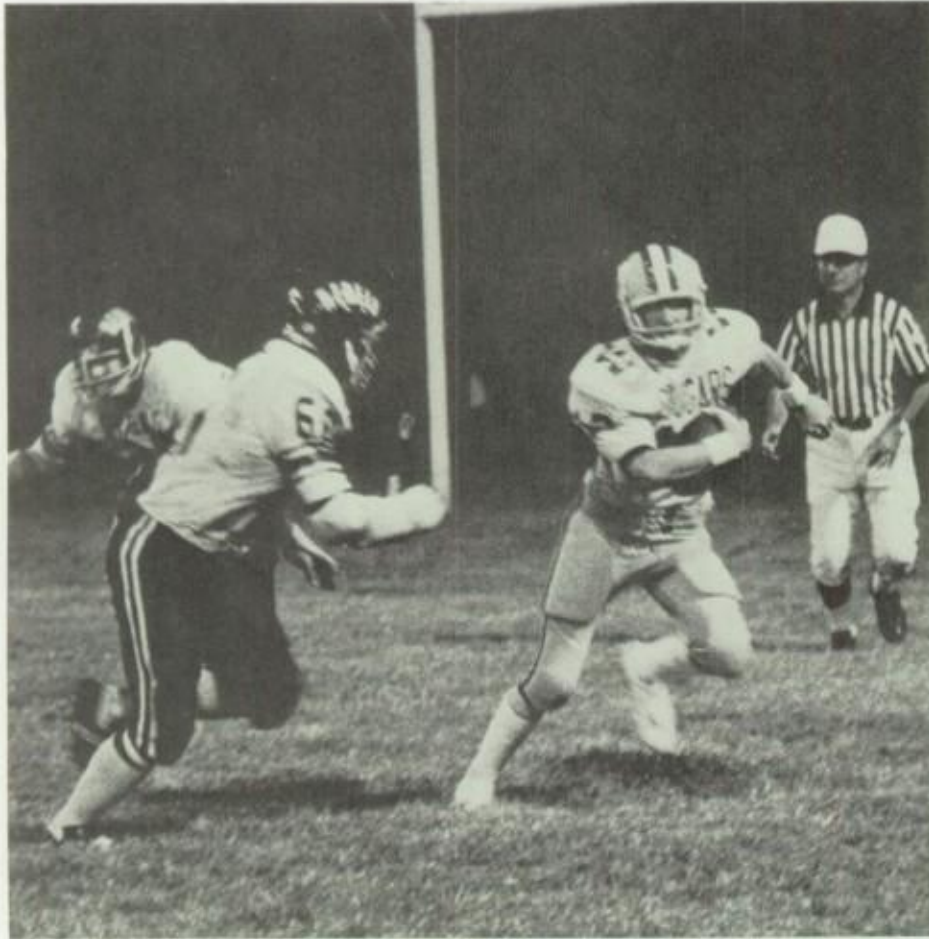

This year proved to be a trying one for the 74-75 varsity Cougars. Though the 0-10 record was the poorest season in seven years, the team did have spirit and determination. From last year's team there were seven returning lettermen. The team showed their appreciation for the outstanding support from the student body by presenting them with a plaque at the Northside pep rally.

One of the few remaining original faculty members at Western Hills, he brought feelings of pride and strength in all athletics, he will truly be missed. Strong individual effort was rewarded, with Don Grantham and Duane Crawford being named All-District.

You will find as you look back upon your life, that the moments that stand out are the moments you have done things for others.

Henry Drummond

Surround you as you go
Down paths of light and laughter
Where the happy memories grow*
